Dear Kathleen M. Kloos,

COMES NOW THE MERCER COUNTY COMMON LAW GRAND JURY TO DEMAND that the clerk perform only a ministerial function, that the clerk not perform any tribunal functions, and that the clerk file the attached declaration consented by the people establishing this Common Law Grand Jury. We will not accept a filing dealing with the criminal court system. Since this is not a court case, we will be filing under a miscellaneous docket number. In which we will only accept a miscellaneous docket number for the purpose of filing and retrieving these documents.

The clerk is therefore directed to file the following documents:

- 1. "File on Demand";
- 2. Declaration with authorities;
- 3. Three Affidavits;
- 4. Press Release;

BE IT FURTHER KNOWN If the clerk has been instructed by a Judge or other public official who is superior to your office to not file certain documents, remove certain documents, or have knowledge of the removal certain documents and you feel compelled to obey that person, you must consider:
